Nestled in the scenic, seasonable northeastern Piedmont section of North Carolina, along the North Carolina/Virginia state line, Warren County is approximately 50 miles north of Raleigh, 90 miles south of Richmond, and roughly three hours from either the Blue Ridge Mountains or the Atlantic Ocean. The county's mild climate makes it an ideal destination, with four distinct and picturesque seasons. Warren County boasts year-round outdoor enjoyment including hunting, fishing, ATV and motorcross, horseback riding, golf, and from May to September, swimming, water skiing and other water sports at Lake Gaston and Kerr Lake. In addition, the county hosts a wide range of musical and art festivals, parades, and agricultural events throughout the year. Come and visit us in Warren County, the Gateway to the Carolinas!
